To search for specific names, type keywords into the search bar in your PDF reader. If a keyword search doesn't turn up expected results, it is recommended that you also scroll down into the alphabetical listings to search for the name, as the text-recognition software is not perfect.

The table of contents below can also give you an idea of where to look within the document for other kinds of information listed in the directory, like street guides, government listings, and advertisement indices. Note that the PDF page number and the original directory page numbers are different, because the color-printed advertisement pages in the directories were not numbered.

PREFACE.

KEEPING pace with the progress of our noble city, the BROOKLYN DIRECTORY this year appears in an improved style. The large increase of names during recent years, and the endeavor to keep the book in a handy and compact form, has necessitated the use of smaller type so that this edition appears in an entire new font of Nonpareil. It will be found that this change will result in more convenient reference and handling. The DIRECTORY is now, as to typography, accuracy, and completeness, equal to any in the world. We have now rapid transit as an assured fact. We feel that in the consummation of this latter benefit we have had a part, as for several years past an earnest advocacy of it has been a prominent feature of the preface to the DIRECTORY. While we are thankful for it, and not impatient, yet we cannot but hope and believe that the present road is but a pioneer, and that we soon shall have routes in operation in other sections of the city where the need is urgent.

The number of names contained in this book is 162,934. According to the ratio of $4\frac{37}{100}$ the population of Brooklyn is 712,022. Our business has grown so much that we have been compelled to find more commodious quarters, and we now have the whole building, No. 17 Willoughby street, corner of Pearl street, where ample accommodation is afforded for the work needed in so large an undertaking. We congratulate ourselves on our prosperity, and our city on its condition. With local self-government, honest administration of municipal affairs, the grand highway in the air across the river, speedy transit, constant increase in population, and, not least of all, a perfect DIRECTORY, the position of Brooklyn among the cities of the world evokes admiration and sets an imposing example.

BROOKLYN, June 15, 1885.

BATES & JOHNSON,

Successors to WYLLYS H. WARNER,

Steam Heating Apparatus,

114 LEONARD ST., NEW YORK.

NO OFFICE IN BROOKLYN.

TELEPHONE CALL, MURRAY 407.

The attention of architects and owners of buildings, and the trade generally, is directed to our specialties for warming buildings by steam and especially to our house-heating boilers and automatic regulating apparatus.

We are prepared to furnish experienced men to erect apparatus in any part of the United States, and to do work of any description where steam is used for heating, either with high or low pressure, or for power.

Parties wishing our estimate of cost, and specifications for work, should, if possible, furnish a tracing of the plans of the building to be heated, stating the height of each story, and the height in the cellar available to set a boiler, the point of the compass to which the building faces, and the material of which it is constructed, the range of the thermometer in winter, and such general information as may influence the temperature of the building. When not convenient to furnish tracing of plans, send the accurate dimensions of apartments to be heated.

Also state the dimensions of the chimney flue to be used for the boiler.

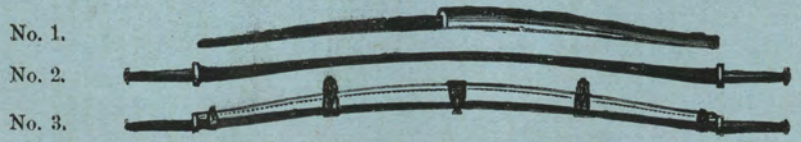
We have received the following letter from General McClellan, in regard to the



VERTICAL STEEL PLATES

Used in the Axle Beds of all our Trotting and Road Wagons:

New York, June 1st, 1871.

Gentlemen:—I have carefully examined your Patent Vertical Steel Plate Axle. I find that the addition of the Vertical Plate renders the Axle about two and a half (2½) times as stiff as it would be without it.

Very respectfully, GEO. B. McCLELLAN.

No. 1.—Half the wood removed from an Axle bed, showing the position of the plate. No. 2.—The Axle. No. 3.—The Axle and Axle bed combined.

[From THE UNION of April 6th, 1885.]

To-day's issue of THE UNION will be recognized by every reader as a new departure in evening journalism. We submit in the full confidence that the people of Brooklyn will promptly recognize the superiority of this new form to the old-fashioned "blanket sheet," alike in symmetry, convenience and legibility. The time is not far distant when the unwieldy folio size will be as generally discarded by evening newspapers as by their morning contemporaries, and most of the readers of THE UNION will, after inspecting to-day's issue, wonder why a change so obviously in the right direction should have been so long delayed. It is very largely to their lack of enterprise in adapting themselves to the wants of the public that evening newspapers wield less influence than the morning press, and nothing has been so characteristic of their deficiency in the elements of progress as the unattractive character of their typographical make-up and the inconvenient amplitude of their form.

In leading the coming revolution in evening journalism in the Metropolitan district, THE UNION demonstrates to the country the pre-eminence of the afternoon press of Brooklyn over that of New York, and the superiority of its own enterprise to that of its local contemporaries. The change represents more than meets the eye of the casual reader, for it is identified with the perfection of a printing machine as marvelous as it is unique. It is a recognized fact that an evening newspaper is handicapped by the necessity of stereotyping, the 20 or 30 minutes consumed in that process being invaluable at the hour of going to press. But it has hitherto been found impossible to publish a large edition in a short space of time without the use of stereotype plates. THE UNION press represents the first successful attempt to print from type at such a rate of speed as will ensure the delivery in one hour of 24,000 copies of eight pages, cut, pasted and folded. The ease with which the latest news can be covered, when there is no tedious casting of plates to be gone through, is as obvious as the celerity with which "extras" can be produced or postscripts added when occasion arises. These and other advantages of such a machine as that on which THE UNION is now printed are well known to every publisher, and will be fully appreciated by the people of Brooklyn after opportunity has been afforded for their practical illustration.

THE UNION takes its place at the head of the line of evening journals with entire confidence in its ability to make its superiority in other respects as well marked as in its mechanical facilities for prompt production in a readable and easy handled form. For the measure of support which THE UNION has already obtained, its best thanks are tendered alike to its numerous friends and its not inconsiderable number of enemies. What the former may have failed to do in recommending it to public approval has been quite effectively done by the latter. Happy in the possession of both aids to the success of a newspaper, it trusts that neither will relax their efforts. For themselves, its conductors can only say that they will take the readiest way to command success—by deserving it.

EVERY line in its four bright pages is readily seen, the advertisements standing out in bold relief instead of being buried out of sight as they are in large blanket sheets and eight page papers.

The STANDARD'S circulation, large as it is already, is daily increasing, the steady growth fully justifying the belief that before the Fall its readers will outnumber those of all the Brooklyn papers combined.

Brooklyn Clay Retort and Fire-Brick Works,
88 VAN DYKE STREET, BROOKLYN, N. Y.

SOME POINTS

For Wide-Awake Merchants of Brooklyn who want to do Trade with the Largest, Most Compact and Generous Section of the Religious Community.

EVERY THIRD OR FOURTH man, woman and child that you meet in the great City of Brooklyn is a member of the Catholic Church. Within the lifetime of the first Bishop of Brooklyn, and mostly under his rule, this marvelous community has been organized here. We now number over 250,000 Catholics, for whom there are 130 churches attended by 150 priests; we have 2 colleges, 16 academies, 43 parish schools—in Brooklyn City alone we teach 20,443 pupils—16 asylums, and 4 hospitals!

DO YOU APPRECIATE THE SIGNIFICANT LESSON OF THESE FIGURES?

The trade of that great, numerous, prosperous, intelligent and generous people is worth looking for!

HOW AND WHERE SHALL WE WIN IT?

The best way to reach Catholics is through their principal paper. Experience has shown that the weekly religious press is the surest and cheapest mode of reaching the families most likely to buy.

Dailies are chiefly read for their news. Numbers of our business men who have to use these will not admit them into their households, for obvious reasons. Even their shape and blanketlike unwieldy form prevent advertisements being seen without a painful search which few make.

If you want a Catholic medium widely circulated, taken, read and preserved by numbers of the best families in Brooklyn and Long Island, by the Bishop, Clergy, Schools, Convents and Institutions, use THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, 65 Court Street, Brooklyn.

The only Catholic weekly commended by the Bishop of Brooklyn is THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, a fact that speaks volumes for its excellence as a Catholic newspaper. Fourteen years ago THE CATHOLIC REVIEW was founded in Brooklyn by the Vicar-General of the Diocese, Very Rev. Father Turner. Placed under competent journalistic and business talent, it at once attained success. From Brooklyn, recommended by a formal letter of Bishop Loughlin, its work and fame made the circuit of the world, everywhere recognized as worthy of the third city of America, and as one of the ablest and handsomest papers published in the English language.

The Cardinal Archbishop of New York, Archbishop Corrigan, the Archbishops of Philadelphia, Boston, Cincinnati, etc., all repeated and strengthened Bishop Loughlin's favor and approval. The Holy Fathers, Pope PIUS IX, blessed it more than once; the present Pope, LEO XIII, twice by Pontifical letters under the Seal of the Fisherman, praised its conductors for their services to the Catholic cause.

Nor is it in the Catholic fold alone that THE CATHOLIC REVIEW has won honor and popularity. The chief Secular and Protestant papers have largely recognized its power.

Opinions of the Secular and Protestant Press:

The Boston Traveller says it is "the best Catholic paper in the country;" New York Graphic, "the best type of Catholic weeklies;" New York World, "the best and best informed of the Catholic papers;" New York Tribune, "it affords evidence of being edited with care and ability."

The Christian Advocate sometimes finds "a breadth and genuine Catholicity in its utterances that is decidedly refreshing;" Zion's Herald, of Boston, calls it "that most readable and vigorous of Catholic papers;" the Congregationalist, "no paper which we receive betrays a wider reading, and a more careful study of the organs of Protestant thought."

The Brooklyn, E. D., Times after describing THE CATHOLIC REVIEW as "the neatest of our religious contemporaries," says "we cannot help saying that the spirit of a broad journalistic charity which pervades its columns, is a feature that might well be imitated by many that we know of."

The form of THE CATHOLIC REVIEW, a 16 pp. and 24 pp. octavo, is admirably suited to display advertisements. Rates are exceedingly reasonable. Drop a card to our nearest office—in the Western District to 65 Court Street; in the Eastern District to 81 Broadway, E. D., or 340 Manhattan Avenue, Greenpoint, and a member of our staff will call on you for business. We can be of benefit to business men who use are columns. We are anxious to secure, and then retain by benefitting, only the best advertisers.

OVER.

"There is not, and there never has been on this Earth a work of human institution so well deserving examination as the Roman Catholic Church."—LORD MACAULAY.

THE CATHOLIC REVIEW agrees with Lord Macaulay in that sentiment with the correction that the Holy Catholic Church is a DIVINE and not a human institution. Its founder is Christ; its inspiration and guide is the Holy Spirit, who keeps it from error. That is the simple explanation of the marvels of its wonderful existence.

Are you not interested in the life and work of this astounding creation?

Citizens of Brooklyn, who wish to know something of the current life of the sole Church of Christ will do well to read every Sunday

THE CATHOLIC REVIEW.

THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn is conducted in the interests of two distinct and opposite classes of its readers. One class it counts as its friends and natural allies, and the other it hopes to win over to a friendship for its views, or, if not to their acceptance, at least to an intelligent respect for opinions which are likely to be at least as accurate as their own, and which have in their favor the support of Nineteen Centuries and of 200,000,000 of the Christians of this age. These classes are Catholics and Protestants.

ARE YOU A CATHOLIC?

If you are, THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn is exactly the paper you want for Sunday reading for yourself and for your family. It gives the earliest news concerning the progress of the Church in America and throughout the world. These are not the times when any one who has a love for the old faith should be ignorant of what is done against the Catholic Church, of what her zealous children in all parts of the world are doing to advance her cause, of what they have to say in her defence against those who are her enemies, either from ignorance or from malice, and of what her faithful sons ought to do for her. The secular papers will not tell you this. If you want to be posted, you ought to take THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn.

ARE YOU A PROTESTANT?

If you are, do you know anything of the Catholic religion except the fact of its existence and that it is professed by a larger number of civilized beings than believe in any other religion? Have you not been told that the doctrines of the Church are superstition, its ministers immoral deceivers, its followers credulous fanatics? If you are a "professing believer," has not your minister told you that Catholics detest the Bible, buy and sell pardons to commit sin, that they are idolaters and unworthy of the rights of citizens? Have you not heard a thousand statements about your Catholic fellow-citizens, who, you know from your business and social relations, are just as good, just as honest, just as pure and truth-loving as any of your fellow-citizens?

Did it ever strike you that these statements were slanders? Just examine the question for yourself. They may be true; but then, again, they may not. There is an abundance of Catholic literature at your command. If you are at a loss to know what to read, take THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn for a few months. It will not do all for you, but it will put you in the right road to the truth.

Order THE CATHOLIC REVIEW of Brooklyn through any Newsdealer, or directly from its offices—in the Western District at 65 Court Street; in the Eastern District at 81 Broadway, E. D.; and 340 Manhattan Ave., Greenpoint, N. Y. Six Cents a copy, or $3.00 yearly.
